

Joshua Wilde
Department of Economics
Box B
Providence, RI 02912
joshua_wilde@brown.edu

Education:

Exp. 2010	Ph.D. in Economics – Brown University, Providence, RI
2006	A.M. in Economics – Brown University, Providence, RI
2004	B.A. in Economics – Brigham Young University, Provo, UT

Published or Forthcoming Papers:

How Relevant is Malthus for Economic Development Today? AEA Papers and Proceedings (Forthcoming 2009). With David N. Weil.

Working Papers:

How Substitutable are Fixed Factors in Production? Evidence from Pre-Industrial England

Terms of Trade and Democracy

Research Presentations:

April 2008	Macro Lunch, Brown University
Feb 2009	Macro Lunch, Brown University

Research Experience:

2007 - 2009	Research Assistant – David Weil, Brown
Summer 2006	Research Assistant – Sophocles Mavroeidis, Brown
2003-2004	Research Assistant – Kerk Phillips, BYU

Teaching Experience:

Summer 2007	Instructor – Math Camp for Incoming Economics Graduate Students, Brown
Spring 2007	Teaching Assistant – Graduate Macroeconomics II, Brown
Fall 2006	Teaching Assistant – Graduate Macroeconomics I, Brown
Summer 2006	Instructor – Math Camp for Incoming Economics Graduate Students, Brown
Summer 2004	Teaching Assistant – Intermediate Macroeconomics, BYU
Spring 2004	Teaching Assistant – Development Economics, BYU

	Teaching Assistant – Public Policy, BYU
Fall 2003	Teaching Assistant – Development Economics, BYU
	Teaching Assistant – Economic Growth, BYU
Spring 2003	Head Teaching Assistant – Introductory Economics, BYU
Fall 2002	Head Teaching Assistant – Introductory Economics, BYU
Spring 2002	Teaching Assistant – Honors Introductory Economics, BYU

Honors and Awards:

2008	Umezawa-Stoltz Prize (For receiving “Pass with Distinction” on 3 rd year paper)
2006-2007	Susan R. Kamins Fellowship
2005-2006	Graduate School First-Year Fellowship
1998-2004	BYU University Scholarship

Non-Academic Work Experience:

2004-2005	Survey Statistician – U.S. Census Bureau
-----------	--